DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to applicant amendment received 1/12/05. Claims 1, 18, and 23 have been amended. Claim 27 has been added. Claims 1 – 27 are pending on this application.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1 - 27 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respects to claims 1, in addition to other elements in the claim, the prior art does not teach a compression having: plurality of sub-phases, each sub-phases comprises a treatment of model comprising growing a sub tree into a tree of the mode and a phase of pruning the sub tree. In other words, the inventors' method mixes the phases: first they build a node (create its children), then the children are "treated" resulting in sub trees and then they prune the node immediately.

With respect to claims 18, 23, and 27, in addition to other elements in the respective claim the prior art does not teach a system for code compression having of the cost evaluation means for controls both the growing and pruning of a sub tree. In other words first they build a node (create its children), then the children are treated" resulting in sub trees and then they prune the node immediately.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably
